Notice to Court of Withdrawal of Sentencing Enhancement and Agreement of Appropriate Sentence

The United States notifies the Court that it withdraws its request that the Court apply an one-level enhancement for Defendant Claude Jerome Wilson, II pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 4B1.4(b)(3)(A). Previously on May 31, 2007, the United States notified the Court of its support of the Probation's Officer calculation under this Guidelines Section.<sup>1</sup> Recently, however, the Government has learned information that has lead it to believe that the application of this enhancement is no longer appropriate.

Thus, without this one-level enhancement, the Government believes that the appropriate Guidelines level for Wilson is 30, which when combined with Wilson's criminal history category of VI produces a sentencing range of 168-210 months.

The Government has informed the Defendant's counsel, Jennifer Hart, of its new position, and she, on behalf of Wilson, agrees with the Government. She also agrees that the appropriate sentence under the plea agreement for Wilson based upon his range is 180
